'COMMUNITY SERVICES FOR THE AGED'
INSTITUTE OFFERED JUNE 16-20 AT UM

MISSOULA--

The Department of Social Work at the University of Montana in Missoula is offering a special institute on the theme "Community Services for the Aged" during the UM Summer Presession Monday through Friday, June 16-20. The program, offered under Social Work 471, Practice in Special Settings, will be 12:30-3:30 p.m. each day in room 204 of the UM Liberal Arts Building.

A total of two graduate or undergraduate credits are available for the institute at a cost of $21 through the UM Center for Continuing Education and Summer Programs.

Dr. E. Clifford Brennen, professor of social work at UM, will conduct the course, which includes an exploration of community organization and planning methods for developing services for elderly citizens in such areas as transportation and socialization. Brennen has experience in consulting and planning local programs for older Montana citizens.
